

The black
The white
The segregation
The separation
we suffered so much For the justice in this world
To create a best future for the world
For the struggle for equality Let's this world be a place where everyone can live in freedom us black and white.
Let's do it to reward our past and improve our future.
